ALL FOL members and the public are encouraged to attend. We are always looking for members to be a part of various activities. Please come meet and join fellow book and library supporters and learn how you can help the library continue its outstanding services.

The book club is meeting again in the library. They invite you to come and discuss the following books on the following dates at 5:30 p.m.:

November 9th: The Giver of Stars by Jojo Moyes

December 14th: Tell us about your favorite pandemic read. A potluck meeting will be held in the community room of the Coop, 2533 Eagle Ridge Drive.

Please be advised that all activities in the library require social distancing and the wearing of masks.

Unfortunately, due to the pandemic, no in-person author appearances will be held. However, Marcie Rendon, Minnesota author, appeared on Zoom on Saturday, September 11. She is the author of Murder on the Red River, selected for One Book, One Minnesota. An indigenous author of several novels and plays, she spoke about her current and upcoming work. Check the RWPL website for future author visits, virtually or in person. We also hope to have a book sale during the Holiday Stroll.

In Memoriam

The FOL wishes to mark the passing of two founding members of the group, Jacquie Knievel and Lois Hotchkiss.

Jacquie was a lover of books and libraries. She volunteered on many FOL committees, including hospitality, Hot Reads, and the book club, and assisted in rewriting the FOL constitution. She is remembered with affection. Her husband asks that people give donations to their favorite library in her name.

Lois was an avid reader and loved the large print collection. She worked to increase FOL membership and volunteered at every FOL book sale. She will be greatly missed. Her family has indicated that donations in her memory may be given to the Friends of the Red Wing Library.
